2 Over Top Before Dimes Drive Begins

Annual March of Dimes drive at Camp Anza was launched Monday with contributions indicating the post will soon meet its 100-percent contributions goal.

Even before the drive was officially opened two groups here turned in 100-percent contributions. They were the Laundry and the Civilian Personnel Office.

Officers and GIs alike are supporting the appeal which will be conducted through January 31, Lt. Eli Bell, chairman of the campaign here, announced. Last year soldiers, sailors and marines donated $1,218,657.18. The money was used to aid more than 13,000 polio victims in 1945, many of whom were the children and relatives of servicemen.

Port of Embarkation, at a ceremony held in the Port's Officers' Club at Wilmington last Friday afternoon. General Herbert, a graduate of the U. S. Military Academy in 1930, is one of the Army's youngest generals.

Presentation of the red, white and blue medal was made by Major General Homer M. Groninger, formerly Commanding General of the New York Port of Embarkation and now Commanding General of the San Francisco Port, who represented the War Department. The DSM was awarded by President Harry Truman.

Heads of civic and transportation agencies, together with General Herbert's staff officers, Mrs. James K. Herbert and intimate friends, witnessed the ceremony.

The award was for "exceptionally meritorious service performed in a position of great responsibility as commanding officer of the Los Angeles Port of Embarkation from September 1943 to September 1945.

Medal Citation

The citation reads "Charged with supplying the China-Burma-India theater of operations he (General Herbert) quickly transformed Los Angeles from a support status to that of an independent, major port. Through the employment of high professional skill and organizational ability, he achieved an outstanding record of efficiency, vastly increasing the facilities, personnel, and operations of his command.

"General Herbert's exceptional performance was largely responsible for the accomplishment of the Los Angeles Port of Embarkation's mission and contributed in a high degree to the success of Allied forces operating in the areas supplied by the Port."

Born in Boston

General Herbert was born in Boston in 1909. He was a distinguished graduate of West Point in 1930, and received an MS in engineering from Iowa State College in 1932. He was assigned to the Corps of Engineers and served as both a staff and command officer. In 1940 he returned to West Point as an instructor.

Eight Officers Are Upped

Eight promotions in rank were announced this week among Station Complement officer personnel. The bulk went to officers in the Debarkation Command Group.

Miss Caroline Bolla of Arlington was maid of honor at the wedding ceremony. Best man was Ray Bader of Riverside. Mrs. Hinkle has been employed at the Station Hospital for nearly three years. She works in the EENT Clinic as a stenographer.

'We Still Have a Big Job to Do' Says Camp Commander

"Pay no attention to rumors about the closing of Camp Anza," said Camp Commander Colonel R. Sarles this week.

"We still have a big job to do," the Colonel pointed out, adding that "we will receive for processing from 90,000 to 100,000 troops in January and not less than 50,000 in February."

"Due to the uncertainty as to the number of troops to be received on the west coast for the month of March no official quota has, as yet, been released for that month."

Persistent rumors circulating about camp the past week to the effect that the camp will close soon or on certain specified dates have no foundation, said Colonel Sarles.

"I have received no official information as to the closing date of this post," he said.

"Until such time I recommend that no attention be paid to rumors flying about and that everyone continue on their jobs."

When official notice is received as to the date upon which processing of troops will be discontinued, Colonel Sarles said, all personnel at this post will be officially notified.

Embarkation Returns As Areas Are Closed

Embarkation activities returned to Camp Anza this week as four of the five areas at the LAPE Staging Area at Camp Haan were ordered closed. Embarkees will be billeted in area C here. A small Station Complement cadre will be retained to administer the one remaining area which will have a housing capacity of 2,000 troops.

Furloughs Unfrozen

Furloughs, frozen since Christmas because of the unprecedented work load here, are now available again for Station Complement enlisted men who qualify it was announced this week by Capt. John Sutton, CO of Station Complement. Effective last Tuesday applications for furloughs were being accepted once more by detachment commanders.

Cease Hiring of Civilians Here

Hiring of civilian employees at Camp Anza has stopped, momentarily at least, it was indicated this week by Lt. William Cloud, Chief of Civilian Personnel.

A week ago there were 250 openings for civilian help on the post but the requisitions for these positions have been cancelled, said Lt. Cloud.

Thus civilian personnel has had to refuse numerous applicants for jobs this week. Only a few employees have terminated the civilian chief reported.

ATTENDS CONVENTION

Capt. John Hourigan, chief of Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat clinic, Camp Anza, will attend the annual meeting of "The Research Study Club of Los Angeles" next week. The convention, pertaining to ophthalmology, will be in session four days, beginning Monday.

Your Work in the Army May Land You a Job

Army and Navy job experience can pay off when you hit the civilian labor market.

This may seem preposterous to a rifleman who has spent most of his military career in the mud, squeezing an occasional bullet at the enemy. But he hasn't been wasting his time, nor has any sailor.

The War Manpower Commission can prove it. So can other agencies, both governmental and civilian.

They have spent a lot of time figuring out civilian jobs for which servicemen are qualified and have established that one-third of all Army jobs are related directly to civilian occupations, one third are indirectly related and ALL are related in some way.

49 Jobs for a Rifleman

As for the rifleman, believe it or not, he has qualifications that are related to 49 civilian jobs.

Military job experience is of special value if: 1. You improved civilian skills by what you learned as a soldier. 2. You learned an entirely new skill. 3. You learned about a field of employment you like which you hadn't considered before.

Under the first heading comes the man who may have been an auto mechanic before he became a GI. In the Army he received specialized mechanical training, then became a truckmaster or a truck driver.

New Vistas of Opportunity

In the second group is the gas station attendant who learned meat-cutting in the Army and has decided to become a civilian butcher after getting discharged.

An example of the third class is the machine operator who was assigned to a Judge Advocate's office and found, through indirect contacts with law, that he won't be satisfied unless he returns to school and becomes an attorney.

Backhanded benefits from military job experience have come to some men. For instance, to the GI who had gotten half-way through teacher's college, who became an instructor at a service school and found that he would never be happy if he made teaching a life's work. Such a discovery is negative, but important.

The kind of civilian work for which military experience has fitted men is extremely varied. Consider the rifleman, the fellow whose Army job has been to load, aim and fire a rifle to destroy enemy personnel. And whose business it has been to assist in the capture and holding of enemy positions.

Among the possible civilian occupations for him, with only brief on-the-job experience are: powder monkey, explosive operator, magazine keeper or nitroglycerin-storeroom operator. With some additional training, he may qualify as a hunting and fishing guide, a trapper, oiler or greaser. Or perhaps as an automobile accessories installer, a stud hairspringer, garage equipment assembler, shrink pit helper, star-gage operator or gymnasticator operator.

Other Jobs Listed

In other fields, Army jobs and a few of the civilian occupations to which they are related include:

Control Tower Operator: airport control operator, studio engineer, transmitter tester.

Ammunition Handler: cotton picker operator, brine house man, solvent recovery man.

Heavy Artillery Mechanic: barrel driller, fuel system installer, motorcycle repairman.

Classification Specialist: camp director, time-study engineer, social worker.

Clerk-Typist: court reporter, clerk typist, librarian.

Landing Craft Coxswain: barge captain, bus driver, pleasure craft sailor.

Glider Mechanic: airplane inspector, canvas worker, spot welder.

Light Machine Gunner: cigar machine oiler, dump truck operator, draw press operator.

Medical Corpsman: asylum attendant, anesthetist, funeral attendant.

Radar Operator: photoradio operator, call-box wiper, instrument maker.

Tank Mechanic: seamless tube inspector, installation mechanic, bulldozer operator. (By CNS)

Jan. Dischargees Leave For Centers

First of more than 300 Anza GIs with 50 points or three and a half years service left camp Tuesday and yesterday for Ft. MacArthur, Ft. Lewis, and Ft. Douglas for separation from the service.

Figures showed that 102 men were sent to Ft. MacArthur Tuesday and Wednesday. Tuesday four station complement GIs entrained for Ft. Douglas and three to Ft. Lewis.

Another large group will be sent to different separation centers Sunday. Only a few of the more than 300 eligibles for discharges will be left in camp after Sunday. They will be sent to centers as soon as clearances are received here, Military Personnel headquarters declared.

DSM Given Port General

Britain for bases in the Atlantic, General Herbert was chosen to construct military installations from Jamaica through the British island possessions to Dutch Guiana. In 1940 and 1942 he served as Trinidad Area Engineer, District Engineer of the Jamaica and Trinidad Districts.

General Herbert returned to the United States at the end of 1942 to undertake an assignment for the Under-Secretary of War. Soon afterwards he became Executive Officer in the office of the Chief of Transportation.

Assigned to LAPE

In 1943, General Herbert was assigned to the Los Angeles Port of Embarkation as deputy port commander and in November of that year he was made commanding officer of the port.

At the peak of port operations, approximately 16,000 military and civilian personnel served under General Herbert. Shipments of supplies and troops to Pacific theaters quadrupled under his command. He was commended twice by Major General Charles P. Gross, former Commanding General of the Transportation Corps.

NCOs Have 14 Days to Enlist

Anza GIs have but 14 days to enlist in the peacetime Regular Army if they wish to keep their present rank, Lt. Farnold V. Adler, post recruiting officer, reminded yesterday.

All NCO enlistments are in permanent grade, Lt. Adler pointed out, and warrants will be issued.

The local recruiting office is now accepting enlistments for one year or more, the men filling their own vacancies at Anza. The February 1 deadline applies only to enlisted men. Officers have until April 3, 1947, to sign up in the permanent grade of master sergeant.

Regular Army men who are now officers but served in less than the first grade before commissioning and who reenlist will have the date of rank in the first grade listed as the date of entry on active duty as an officer. This applies to Regular Army men only, Lt. Adler said.

Operations Holds Spaghetti Party

Outlawing any talk of trains, troops or boats, military and civilian personnel of the Operations Division enjoyed a spaghetti and steak supper, dancing and singing at an Arlington cafe last week.

Capt. Larry Noble, Chief of the Operations Division, congratulated the Category I officers and bid adieu to the Category IV officers contemplating separation from the service.

merciless disease have been civilians. Gen. Norman T. Kirk, Surgeon General of the Army Service Forces, has stated: "Poliomyelitis is of great concern to the Army because of its ever-present danger to military personnel. In the Army during this war there were more than a thousand cases of poliomyelitis, of which approximately 175 were fatal."

Poliomyelitis is one of the most expensive diseases known to medicine, he further pointed out. Many victims of past epidemics must receive continuing care, sometimes for several years. Each year's outbreaks add new names to the steadily growing list. Hospitalization for a single patient costs more than $2500 per year.

Apply Now For RA Commission

Officers interested in a Regular Army career should submit applications without delay, it was announced today at Ninth Service Command headquarters, Fort Douglas, Utah.

Anza officers interested should apply on WD AGO Form 62, available at Capt. Mark Ryan's office in Military Personnel. War Department Circular 392, 1945, contains in detail the WD plan to commission officers in the RA. President Truman recently signed a bill to increase the Army's commissioned strength to 25,000 providing an opportunity for nearly 10,000 additional men who have served as temporary officers in World War II.

Qualified officers will be selected for service with the branch of their choice, in grades of second lieutenant to major, inclusive. The grade will be determined by the amount of constructive or actual commissioned service, whichever is greater.

Applications must be submitted to reach the Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C. by March 1.

Wind Storm Does Little Damage

Although last week-end's heavy north wind destroyed an estimated 25 per cent of citrus crops in the surrounding areas, it did little damage to property at Camp Anza.

Major Henry C. Snider, Post Engineer, this week reported local damage limited to broken windows, shingles ripped from barrack roofs, and unhinged barrack doors.

Damage estimated at $2000 was caused in the windstorm a week previous. Repair work is now being completed.

Must Register Souvenir Guns

GIs who brought home from overseas as souvenirs automatic weapons of any kind must register them under the provisions of the National Firearms Act. Owners of such trophies should communicate with the nearest unit of the Bureau of Internal Revenue which will aid veterans in complying with the law. Failure to register is punishable by a fine of not more than $2,000 and not more than five years imprisonment. The bureau suggests as a matter of public safety that owners of such weapons make them inoperable. Weapons which can fire are subject to a tax of $200 if sold or given away by their original owners. ## WARMIN' THE BENCH

All Hail to Primo! Don't fall out of your seat about this, but Primo Carnera, the Tower of Gorgonzola, is making another comeback in the ring. This is not to be confused with Primo's last comeback, however, for that one ended abruptly when one Luigi Musina, a Milanese muskmelon vendor, creamed the big cheese in the third.

Nor should this new comeback be identified with the one before that, the one in which Primo was laid next to the canvas by S-Sgt Homer Blivins, a 91st Division soldier from Butte, Montana, in Gorizia, Italy, last summer.

No, indeed, this is a new comeback entirely.

The lard-laden Preem, who sat out the war as a prosperous "neutral" and part-time associate of the Germans in his native Italy is aiming at Billy Conn, the lovable loudmouth from Pittsburgh, whom Preem thinks he can lick. "I'll feel the bum," says Preem.

Fouled by a Fowling Piece Step Number One in the comeback will be a re-match with this person Musina with "the heavy-weight championship of Europe" at stake. Preem says he was unnerved in his last bout with Musina by a gentleman who entered his dressing room, brandishing a revolver shortly before the bell.

This gentleman, says Preem, pressed his small arms into the gorgonzola king's suety middle and urged him to enter the ring. The persuasion was needed, it seems, because Preem was unwilling to fight Musina before a half-empty house. Like all great artists, Preem likes a large audience.

With the added encouragement of a gun in his gut, Preem made it, however, and was almost immediately creamed. After the creaming, the customers—including the flower and chivalry of all Milan—jumped to their feet to a man, demanding their money back, as chivalry will when it's gypped.

All this hurt Primo in his soul of souls. He is determined to vindicate himself. Next time—says Preem—the result will be different. "I'll kill the pig," says Preem.

New York Agog with Apathy

The prospect of a Carnera-Conn fight in New York has Jacobs Beach in a dither of apathy. Such a bout wouldn't pack 'em in—even if it were held in a phone booth.

"Is Preem coming back?" Mushky Jackson, the poor but honest Broadway brakeman, was recently heard to inquire.

"Not only is he coming back," responded Harry Balaugh, the suave and redundant fight announcer, "but he's also returning."

"It's better the bum should stay put," said Mushky with finality. Mushky's attitude, it may be said, represents that of most of the Friday night fight crowd. There is about as much demand for Preem around town as there is for high-button shoes. The fact is that no one who saw Primo fight once wants to undergo that ordeal again. The aroma of his first trip to these shores has lingered like that of a mackerel cast up by the sea.

One whiff of Old Gorgonzola was really sufficient.

$175 in Victory Bonds for New Bowling Tournament

Camp Anza's 1946 Individual Enlisted Men's Bowling Tournament will be held Friday and Saturday next week with a total of $175 in Victory Bonds for prizes for the first three winners.

All games will be played at the local alleys the evenings of January 25 and 26, S-Sgt Lionel Nadeau, tournament chairman, announced yesterday.

Enlisted men at Anza planning to participate in the championship race must register at the alleys before closing hours Wednesday evening. Competition is for Station Complement GIs only.

Friday evening the preliminaries will be run, S-Sgt Nadeau announced. On Saturday night the finals will be held. To participate in the finals men must roll a 500 series or better Friday.

High series score will determine the winner. A $100 Victory Bond will go to the top scorer, a $50 Bond to the second place man, and a $25 bond to the bowler with the third highest series.

Haan Keglers Down Anza 2 to 1 To Win 1st Series

In a closely-fought bowling match Tuesday evening the local all-star keggers were defeated 2 to 1 by a strong Camp Haan team.

Camp Haan won the first game 936 to 840. The locals turned the tables in the second match, winning 898 to 830. Score of the final game was 937 to 890 in favor of the Haan squad.

S/Sgt. Nadeau was high series man for the locals with 540 and had high game with a 199 score. The local squad was composed of Pfc Kizelevich, T/5 Favorita, S/Sgt. Nadeau, Sgt. Brown and 1st/Sgt. Brunner.

A return match is planned but no date has been scheduled.

Medics Lose; MPs Win Title

MP's became the undisputed winners of the Anza Enlisted Men's Bowling Tournament this week when the Medics lost an opportunity to tie up the race by dropping one of three games played with a determined Detachment 4 team.

Had the Medics won all three matches a final series would have been played for the championship. Final results showed the MP's with 12 wins and 3 losses with a percentage of .800. Close behind were the Medics with 11 wins, 4 losses, and a .733 average. SCU placed third with 8 wins and 7 losses and Detachment 1 had 7 wins and 8 losses.

The deciding series was played Monday evening. Medics won the first game 768 to 741. Detachment 4 came through with a 809 to 818 score in the second match to ruin the Medics' chances for a league tie. Only nine pins separated the Medics from a possible championship. In the third game the pillrollers won 774 to 735.

T- Hogan and T-5 Favorita were high series men, each bowling 545. T-4 Hogan had a 189 high game. S-Sgt Valicenti had high game for the losers with a 177 and T-Sgt Walters had a high series of 502.

In last Friday evening's return match with March Field, an all-star Anza squad lost three straight games, giving the Flyers the undisputed crown in the bowling series.

Quick, accurate passes and clever feints opened holes in the Y defense, allowing Anza's fast breaking forwards and guards to cut in for lay-up shots.

At the opening gun the Anza five jumped into the lead on Lt. Bousman's left handed corner shot. Successive goals by Cpl Dunn and Sgt Sweeting gave the soldiers a comfortable edge in the first period but in the second chapter the Y boys rallied to take command of the situation at intermission, 33 to 32.

Take Lead

Brilliant floor work by Dunn, one of the most clever team players in the league, set up plays for quick baskets in the third quarter. Sweeting's marksmanship on long range shots coupled with demoralizing deceptive plays in the bucket zone by Sgt. Canino and Pvt Johnson pushed the Anzites to the fore, a position they held to the end of the game.

In addition to playing stellar defensive roles, S-Sgt Neely and Lt. Bousman contributed their share of points to the final score. Their deft handling of the ball off the defensive backboards enabled the breaking forwards to get away fast for lay-up shots.

Sweeting High Scorer

Once again, Sweeting led in the scoring parade with 22 points. This eagle-eyed forward can always be counted upon to toss at least a score of goals through the hoop.

The team will soon lose the services of Dunn who will join the ranks of civilians. Always a smart ball handler and team player, Dunn will be sorely missed.

Any of the recent transferees to Camp Anza interested in joining the basketball squad should contact T-Sgt Stepanski at 256-1. Practice is usually held Monday (Continued on page four)

Now if she could only spell finished, her life would be complete... Sally Walker can no longer ride to Riverside on Brick Dickerson's lap, now that his wife Helen started working in the distributing department... Nevada Crowell turned her ankle before she started celebrating, she wants us to believe... Nona Speer, the dog fancier, has just cleaned up with a pair of cocker spaniels. Some people get everything... Edna Atwater lost her car keys. Are you still collecting keys Barbara Mathews?... and now out of the night comes Swing Shift Chatter... Gracie Gailey doesn't get the news, she helps make it... Will anyone trade with Jennie Cole? She has a fountain pen she would like to swap for a picture... The gentle, balmy California breeze was playing around the home of Christine Young... Thelma Logan misses her chum Norma Bethel, now on leave with her returned soldier husband... Fred Chastine is home sick. He should have known better than to eat the food he cooks himself... Lucky Proceval was a good loser, and congratulates the new Sheik... Welcome Lt. Parker as our new laundry officer. By Little Me.

(Editor's Note: Maybe Lt. Parker did vote for himself for Sheik of the Laundry but where were the votes for Little Me?)

385th Band

FINALLY AND AT LONG LAST the curtain definitely falls on the 385th Band. The original cast has gone and a new one is being cast to take their place. Next week we will give you the new line-up but for now a kind word for the boys that have played their part in the greatest production in his-
Cpl Rodriguez tory with a true Anza spirit... These ex-Anzites left behind a few gifts that they thought would be of assistance to the newcomers. (Please remember that the gifts and opinions of these men are not necessarily the opinions of this reporter—I've still a month to go)... F-Sgt. Warren "never thought that I'd come out alive"; Perreau leaves nothing but his tangled nerves; Sgt. Gene "You won't have to hear me gripe" McCraney bequeaths 500 pair of broken drumsticks; Sgt. Jim "Who's got a quarter" Lowe leaves all his GI pants without the watch pockets; Sgt. Frank "I finally got those false teeth" Olson leaves his knowledge of requests THRU CHANNELS; Sgt. Ray "I can't hear you" McFarland leaves neither wife nor baritone sax; Sgt. Elwin "What will I do without those allotments" Hunter leaves Rod his day off next Christmas; Sgt. Irvin "Why did I get in the band" Charne leaves those squeaky shoes for night owls; Pfc. Hank "Where is my catcher's mitt" Ribbachi leaves his place on the team; Pfc. Earl "I'll sure miss that back room" Rath leaves all his broken radio parts; Cpl. Leland "I'll press anything you have" Jones takes everything he can get in the back of his car; Cpl. ## MPs

The boys are well on the way to their respective separation centers by now, after the usual "Sweating out" process... In anticipation of the worries that will beset the next bunch leaving for discharge, Pfc. Romeo has jumped the gun and has already started to bite his fingernails so that he'll be up to date when the time comes around... Noticed Sgt. Cornell and Sgt. Muskie daintily wrapping a few gifts for some lucky girls on the post... As this is being written, Sgt. Oops, Cpl. Verrochi is giving, a little nomenclature on the 45 caliber pistol, so we hope nobody gets bumped off... Cpl. Steinhauser, in order to win a certain bet, has to perform a near miracle by Saturday nite or he loses... Pfc. Carty, in discussing marriage, says he doesn't care who he marries, just as long as she has a million bucks... Cpl. Holder who once gave "Red" Bellante a traffic citation for speeding made a terrible mistake when he allowed "Red" to use him for instruction in a recent judo class... Sgt. Daley, dean of card players, showing the boys how to play poker to win... Sgt. Cacioppo taking over the duties of Sgt. Mulligan, but nobody will ever be able to say "Throw him in the ice box!" (Solitary Confinement) like Mulligan could... Now, as Miss Parsons, newspaper columnist would say, That's all for today, see you next Thursday. (Couldn't make it if we had to write another column tomorrow.)

Permanent Grade For Disabled Vets

Veterans employed at Anza as civilians under a War Service indefinite appointment who furnish evidence of the present existence of a service connected disability of not less than 10 percent are now entitled to have their appointments changed to a permanent classified Civil Service status. H. E. Speer, Assistant Chief, Civilian Personnel branch, announced this week. For further information, veterans may call at the Civilian Personnel offices.

TC Det 5

Parting is such sweet sorrow, 'tis said by supposedly eminent authorities, but there is very little sorrow involved in the leavetaking of those soldiers departing for their homes. One gets quite a "kick" watching the enthusiastic antics of these discharges. Psychologists might diagnose it as "a relieving of an intangible pressure on a soldier's mind." There is feeling of exhilaration and then boom—anything happens. When notified that he was to "clear," Supply Sgt. Papp literally sprang into the air and shouted "whoop-pee"; Mail Clerk Anderson actually stopped shuffling about and ran around during the day. Dodenhamer looked happy, for once. Vincent ran around like a little baby, but, of course, that is nothing new for him. Noticed Hengstenberg and Murphy carousing in Riverside. A case of "Youth takes Over." Improvements galore is our theme. The new partition in the Orderly Room makes life pleasanter for all concerned. We have our private motor pool now. It consists of a "Peep" with Shayer as "Pilot." A hearty welcome from all for "Bill" MacMullin. He returns to our organization after being on an emergency furlough back in "cold" Philadelphia. It has been called to our attention that the Post Laundry claimed credit for being the first organization on the post to have reached the 100-percent goal in the "March of Dimes" drive. On November 30, 1945, the old Detachment Six, skippered by Lt. Cooperman, had attained the 100-percent goal in the March of Dimes drive. We accept all apologies.

Anniversary Ball

Anza officers and their wives this week were invited to attend an anniversary "victory" ball sponsored by Deaver Hall Officers' Lounge Friday evening, January 25, at Memorial auditorium. The formal party will celebrate the third year the Lounge has been opened. Dancing will begin at 2100 and more than 150 junior hostesses will entertain bachelor officers. The auditorium is located at Seventh and Lemon streets in Riverside.

De Bunk At Debarkation

On everybody's lips, the hit of the month, "Let it Blow, Let it Blow, Let it Blow... news from the far South... if it blows like this in California once again tornadoes must sweep the coast of Florida.

This week most significant news to Debarkation was the operation of M-Sgt. Richard "We've got to" Capen... in reality we should head the column with twelve point type and write Capen gets knife—Eleanor Pim—alone? Said M-Sgt is reported resting comfortably on his stomach.

Civilian ex-1st-Sgt "Stop that dancing up there!" Epstein the man that sits where Capen did, has become the new Sgt-Maj at Debark Personnel... question on everybody's mind... will the ex-Air Corps 1st-Sgt suffer the same pains as Sgt-Major Capen in the same place?

Everybody in Debark smokes big fourteen cent cigars now... they pass them around like holiday candies. Among those who have gone up are 1st Lt. Julin, 1st Lt. Harkness, 1st Lt. Miller, and Capt. Farrell. One more we forgot... it's M-Sgt W. P. "Where's my red and black pencil" McMinn, now.

Hot from the wires comes news that Debark furloughs will be unfrozen on the 15th of January... You should see Staff Smith typing up his request... he got so excited he used both fingers!!!

So many in the ranks of Debark have been seen at the La Casita, names are too numerous to mention... that's the place they let you dance anyway you like. Roses of the week again go to the new El Patio cafe on the road to Berdo... the outside dance floor has been remodeled and the crowds are swelling... Saw Lt. Gaylor 'getting a night cap at Chi Chi's one evening last week.

That "Oooo" Girl at "375"... Red Tullar has been seen here and there, again, with him and him... she's got more boy friends than Ivory has chips. Here's one to keep on your mind till next week. The new additions in Debark Personnel Distribution, Pfc's Bell and Carson, are ex-pilots and deep sea divers... you can't say Distribution isn't prepared for an emergency... they can go anywhere for a lost stencil... T-Sgt. Cahraman.

OAKLAND, Cal. (CNS — Mrs. Lulu Meyers 'phoned a coffin manufacturer. "I want to order a coffin," said she. Then she hung up and jumped to her death from a 10th story window.
